

Nestled next to the beautiful Rocky Mountains (the world's most spectacular playground), Denver is a hot-spot for your summer professional development. To supplement your convention experience, Denver provides top-notch shopping, a growing dining scene, and more than 200 beers brewed daily in town.

As you stand astonished in Denver, it won't be just because of the beauty—it will also be because of our fantastic program of social and personality psychology. This amazing line-up of cross-discipline science will showcase the best of social and personality in a city that showcases itself.

In addition to a weekend full of training and learning, there is ample time for networking and fun. Please join us at our social hour, whether you are a current or future member. We'll see you in Denver!

Wendy Wood, PhD
Division 8 / SPSP President

Jeni Burnette, PhD
Division 8 Program Chair

SPSSI/SPSP Social Hour

Friday, August 5th
6-8 pm
1515 Restaurant
1515 Market Street, Downtown

Hosted by Division 8 (SPSP)
and Division 9 (SPSSI)

SOCIAL HOUR

ALL WELCOME

DIVISION 8 LEADERSHIP

President: Wendy Wood

President-Elect: Diane Mackie

Past President: Mark Leary

Treasurer: Wendy Berry Mendes

Members-at-Large: Toni Schmader, Sanjay Srivastava, Veronica Benet-Martinez, Samuel Sommers, Linda Skitka, Elizabeth Haines

APA Council Representative: Paula Pietromanaco

Division 8 Program Chair: Jeni Burnette

Division 8 Program Co-Chair: Jenn Lodi-Smith

Executive Director: Chad Rummel

More info: spspinfo@spsp.org

ABOUT DIVISION 8

Our Mission and Goals

Division 8 of APA is dedicated to the fields of social and personality psychology. Activities for the division are organized and funded in part by the Society for Personality and Social Psychology, Inc., (www.spsp.org). Membership in each organization is separate.

Division 8 seeks to advance the progress of theory, basic and applied research, and practice in the field of personality and social psychology. Members are employed in academia and private industry or government, and all are concerned with how individuals affect and are affected by other people and by their social and physical environments.

ABOUT SPSP

Our Mission and Goals

With over 7,000 members, the Society of Personality and Social Psychology (www.spsp.org) is the largest organization of social psychologists and personality psychologists. Founded in 1974, the Society has three general missions:

- Produce and Disseminate Knowledge to the Profession and the Public for the Public Good through Personality and Social Psychological Science;
- Promote the Careers of Students and Professionals in the Areas of Personality and Social Psychology; and
- Recognize and Promote Achievement in Personality and Social Psychology.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

SPSP Annual Convention

January 19-21, 2017 | San Antonio, Texas

March 1-3, 2018 | Atlanta, Georgia

February 7-9, 2019 | Portland, Oregon

APA Annual Convention

August 3-6, 2017 | Washington, DC

August 9-12, 2018 | San Francisco, California

August 8-11, 2019 | Chicago, Illinois

SAN Jan 19 - 21
ANTONIO
2017 SPSP CONVENTION

| CONVENTION PROGRAM | |
|--------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8 AM | |
| 9 AM | SYMPOSIUM Advancing the Basic Relationship Science of Forgiveness--- Implications for Policy and Practice Empirical research on forgiveness has been steadily increasing over the past 20 years and is of great scholarly and public interest. This symposium examines how the science of forgiveness can be applied to practice and policy. Daryl Van Tongeren, V. Michelle Russell, Everett Worthington Jr, Nathaniel Wade, Kristina Coop Gordon Convention Center Room 402  |
| 10 AM | INVITED ADDRESS Contextual Factors Determine the Interpersonal Implications of Positive Self-Beliefs In this talk, I will present research demonstrating that the implications of positive self-beliefs (e.g., self-esteem, self-compassion) for close relationships depend on contextual factors that determine the need to maintain those relationships. Levi Baker Convention Center Room 111  |
| 11 AM | SYMPOSIUM Seeing Clients--Racial Biases in the Visual Perception of People Cultural norms proscribing prejudice have not eradicated the implicit racism that supports racial conflict as well as disparities in health and clinical treatment. We argue that implicit racism is both rooted in and reflective of perceptual processes. Max Weisbuch, Jeni Kubota, Jasmin Cloutier, Anne Krendl, Steffanie Guillermo Convention Center Room 304  |
| NOON | POSTER SESSION 1 Personality and Social Psychology Posters Convention Center: Halls ABC |
| 1 PM | INVITED ADDRESS Shining a Light on the Dark Side of Personality at Work Dark personality can positively affect a person's career. Most benefits are short-term with negative long-term consequences. I illustrate "lessons learned" from studying dark personality at work to capture the good and avoid the bad outcomes. Seth Spain Convention Center Room 206D  |
| 2 PM | |
| 3 PM | SYMPOSIUM Darkness and Light--- Experimental Existential Psychology Insights on Human Confrontation With Death This symposium will present theory and research from experimental existential perspective, focusing on the diverse ways that awareness of death affects significant aspects of human behavior, addressing both the darker and lighter aspects of life. Leila Selimbegovic, Tom Pyszczynski, Gilad Hirschberger, Young Chin Park, Kenneth Vail, Sheldon Solomon Convention Center Room 407  |
| 4 PM | |
| 5 PM | |
| EVENING | |

Sessions offering CE credits have been reviewed and approved by the American Psychological Association Office of Continuing Education in Psychology (CEP) and the Continuing Education Committee (CEC) to offer CE credits for psychologists. The CEP Office and the CEC maintain responsibility for the delivery of the programs.

DIVISION 8

APA CONVENTION
AUG 4-7, 2016

2016 SOCIAL/PERSONALITY

FRIDAY

| CONVENTION PROGRAM | |
|--------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8 AM | |
| 9 AM | INVITED ADDRESS Strategies and Skills Associated With Good Self-Control Drawing on a new model of self-control capacity, this workshop will examine the cognitive, motivational, and behaviors strategies by which self-control is used to manage temptations, take on new challenges, and persist when tempted to quit. Rick Hoyle Convention Center Room 406  |
| 10 AM | SYMPOSIUM On the Consequences of Threat for Political Attitudes--- Implications for the 2016 Election and Beyond A long history of research examines how political attitudes "shift" in response to psychological threats. The present symposium provides insight into these dynamics, along with their potential relevance to the 2016 Presidential campaign. Emily Hanson, Fade Eadeh, Tom Pyszczynski, Joann Sterling, Stephanie Peak Convention Center Room 107 |
| 11 AM | PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS Habit Mechanisms: From Addiction to Effective Self-Control The basic stimulus-response mechanism in habit formation contributes to addictions of substance abuse, obsessive-compulsive disorder, and smoking. I will discuss how habits also contribute to effective self-control and achievement of health goals. Wendy Wood Convention Center Room 406  |
| NOON | |
| 1 PM | |
| 2 PM | |
| 3 PM | |
| 4 PM | POSTER SESSION 2 Personality and Social Psychology Posters Convention Center: Halls ABC |
| 5 PM | SYMPOSIUM Insights from Personality and Social Psychology into Sexual Satisfaction and Behavior This symposium gives a sample of how ongoing work in the field of personality and social psychology can provide insight into sexual satisfaction and behaviors. Jennifer Lodi-Smith, Gregory Webster, Peter Jonason Convention Center Room 105  |
| 6-8 PM | Division 8 (SPSP) & Division 9 (SPSSI) Social Hour 1515 Restaurant 1515 Market Street, Downtown |

SOCIAL HOUR
ALL WELCOME

Sessions offering CE credits have been reviewed and approved by the American Psychological Association Office of Continuing Education in Psychology (CEP) and the Continuing Education Committee (CEC) to offer CE credits for psychologists. The CEP Office and the CEC maintain responsibility for the delivery of the programs.

| CONVENTION PROGRAM | |
|--------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8 AM | |
| 9 AM | INVITED ADDRESS Bounded Ethicality: Why Good People Do Bad Things In contrast to the search for the few "bad apples", we argue that the majority of unethical events occur as a result of ordinary and predictable psychological processes. Thus, even good people engage in unethical behavior without their own awareness. Max Bazerman Convention Center Room 402  |
| 10 AM | |
| 11 AM | SYMPOSIUM Advancing the Circle of Science by Working With Grant Agencies This roundtable session aims to build attendees capacity to work effectively with key grant agencies, thereby increasing the capacity to fund psychological research and translate research into practice. Attendees can meet with program officers. Jen Katz-Buonincontro, Karen Galea, Tamera Schneider, Everett Worthington Jr Convention Center Room 104A |
| NOON | POSTER SESSION 3 Personality and Social Psychology Posters Convention Center: Halls ABC |
| 1 PM | SYMPOSIUM Me, Myself and I--- Self- Theories Shape Health, Well-Being, and Relationships Self-theories play a critical role for our well-being. We discuss how self-theories influence social belonging and responses to rejection. Then, we showcase how self theories regarding weight impact shame and stigma in healthcare contexts. Lauren Howe, Christine Harris, Ashley Whillans, Jeni Burnette, Christine Harris Convention Center Room 107  |
| 2 PM | |
| 3 PM | |
| 4 PM | |
| 5 PM | |
| EVENING | |

CONVENTION PROGRAM

| | |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8 AM | |
| 9 AM | |
| 10 AM | INVITED ADDRESS Me When I'm With You: How Significant Others Influence the Self in Present and Future Relationships This talk describes basic social psychological research on the potentially long-lasting impact of past and current significant others on a broad range of self-related processes, as well as the social-cognitive processes that underlie these effects. Serena Chen Convention Center, Room 303  |
| 11 AM | SYMPOSIUM Social Insights Into Issues in Health---Health Care Experiences, Disordered Eating, and Lack of Exercise These speakers cover the role of individuals' construals of healthcare visits, perceived weight-based discrimination, and social physique anxiety in explaining resultant health-related outcomes. Lisa Auster-Gussman, Patrick Morse, Jeff Hunger Convention Center, Room 303  |
| NOON | SYMPOSIUM Power---New Applications in New Contexts For years, social scientists have grappled with how to define power due to its multitude of forms and ways it is wielded. In this symposium, we will expand on existing notions of power by considering alternative cultures, contexts, and situations. Jennifer Harman, Ellen Ratajack, Michelle Kaufman Convention Center, Room 303 |
| 1 PM | |

SUNDAY

Sessions offering CE credits have been reviewed and approved by the American Psychological Association Office of Continuing Education in Psychology (CEP) and the Continuing Education Committee (CEC) to offer CE credits for psychologists. The CEP Office and the CEC maintain responsibility for the delivery of the programs.

Thanks for attending the Division 8 program!
 To present at the 2017 conference in Washington DC, email the 2017 Program Chair, Jenn Lodi-Smith (lodismij@canisius.edu)

SAN Jan 19 - 21
ANTONIO

See you in San Antonio!
www.spspmeeting.org